

YORKTOWN SMALL BUSINESS ASSOCIATION
(WWW.YORKTOWNSBA.COM)

PRESENTS

SMALL BUSINESS AND EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY FAIR

SPONSORED BY PCSB and STEVE GIORDANO

MAY 23, 2018
8:00 AM to 12 PM
MERCY COLLEGE—YORKTOWN CAMPUS
2651 STRANG BLVD., YORKTOWN HEIGHTS

- Meet town and county officials to learn about current and future economic development projects and plans in the area – County Executive George Latimer, Yorktown Supervisor Ilan Gilbert
- Learn about Career Opportunities: Megan Thomas and Randi Kiernan, Lowe's
- Introduction to Shrub Oak International School: Lori Josephs, Head of People & Culture
- Participate in a panel discussion on Marketing and Branding – Anthony Baily, DMG Partners & Associates
- Small versus Big Business – Wiley Harrison, Business of Your Business, LLC
- Learn about Mercy College's Graduate Programs – Michael Zarrilli, Director of Graduate Programs
- Network with and meet local small businesses and prospective clients/customers
- Two-minute Elevator pitches from local businesses and organizations

Organizations present:

- Support Connection
- Hilltop Hanover Farm
- Landmarks Preservation
- Putnam SCORE
- Women's Enterprise Development Center

PATRON - WESTCHESTER COUNTY ASSOCIATION

YORKTOWN SMALL BUSINESS ASSOCIATION
(WWW.YORKTOWNSBA.COM)

Additional information and/or RVSP to:
Bob Giordano
914-874-4347
yorktownsba@optonline.net

Reservations Required / Continental Breakfast
Suggested donation of $10.00 to benefit one of our Not-for-Profit Members
Free display space for members / $50.00 for non-members